OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We come together as a Parish family of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha. As a Eucharistic people celebrating our diverse cultures, we unite as one Body of Christ strengthened by the Sacraments and nourished by the Living Word of God. As a Faith Community striving to become disciples of Jesus Christ our Lord, we commit ourselves to serve one another and the community at large.

FEATURED MINISTRY-BOY SCOUT SUNDAY

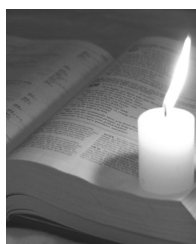

For almost a century, the Catholic Church has recognized scouting as a powerful youth ministry. In the words of His Holiness, Benedict XVI: "For one century, through play, action, adventure, contact with nature, life as a team and in service to others Scouting is not only a place for authentic human growth, but also a place of strong Christian values and true moral and spiritual growth, as with any authentic way of holiness". Here at Blessed Kateri we are fortunate to have the entire scouting family: girl scouts, cub scouts, boy scouts, and ventures.

THE GOOD NEWS

The Lord tells the number of the stars and call them by name. -Psalm 147:4

Today's readings begin with a few verses from the book of Job. First, Job complains that his nights drag on endlessly. Then, worse yet, "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; they come to an end without hope" (Job 7:6). Not exactly encouraging, these lamentations, not when taken alone. Most of us have been there, though, and the antidote is the "good news" that Paul found so compelling that "an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it!" (1 Corinthians 9:16). Paul felt driven to announce the gospel to as many people as possible, "to save at least some" (9:22).

This good news is the mystery of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, who lifted Simon Peter's mother-in-law from her sickbed with a mere touch of his hand. "The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons" (Mark 1:33-

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Job spoke, saying: I have been assigned months of misery, and troubled nights have been allotted to me (Job 7:1-4, 6-7).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted (Psalm 147).

Second Reading — I have become all things to all, to save at least some (1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23).

Gospel — Jesus cured many who were sick with various diseases (Mark 1:29-39).

"Quote"

God's presence is not discerned at the time when it is upon us, but afterwards, when we look back.

HINDSIGHT

Discovering Christ Program is Back!

We are very excited to invite you and your loved ones to our second year of Discovering Christ. Last year, we had an overwhelming response of participants. This year there will be limited seating, so we encourage you to register online early to secure a seat for this seminar. Discovering Christ is a 7 week course that will take you through the basics of our faith, answering such questions as, "What is the meaning of life?" and "Who was Jesus?" We will meet every Sunday from 6:30pm-9:00pm from February 12th to March 25th, with the exception of March 11th because we will have a day retreat on Saturday, March 10th from 9:00am-4:00pm. Dinner will be provided for all sessions and it will be a great opportunity for fellowship with others. People of all faiths are invited to come together in a welcoming environment to explore what relevance Jesus has for their lives today, so be sure to extend the invitation to your family and friends! A welcome video, more information, and registration can be accessed online when you click on the "Discovering Christ" link on our www.blessedkateriparish.org website.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The story of Job seems at first hearing to be an extension of February's gloom into the liturgy. The monumental suffering of a good man is so horrific that the laments of the front page of modern newspapers barely measure up. The whole story is not long to tell, but its resolution is of great comfort. We can trace in its plot the stirrings of a belief in an afterlife, and in God's great power to right every wrong and raise human beings from suffering.

In the Gospel, we see the fulfillment of these longings in the hand of Jesus, grasping an ill woman by the hand and raising her up to vibrant life. Peter's mother-in-law becomes her best self, attentive to her guests, providing hospitality, the warmth of her laughter, the delights of her kitchen. Today is a day to check the fragile flame of your own baptismal candle. Against February's customary lethargy, its background whines and ailments, the liturgy summons us to life, grasps us by the hand, and sends us to serve in Christ's name.

This week, you are asked to read and reflect upon the Together in Mission materials that you received today.

Together in Mission provides substantial financial support to 35 parishes and 52 schools in our Archdiocese. These parishes and schools provide education, ministry and a Catholic presence for tens of thousands of our sisters and brothers.

Sometimes it is difficult to envision how your pledge can help so many people. But, it does. To see how, please review the materials and read the statements of those whose parishes and schools receive support.

The theme of the campaign is "Be Imitators of...Christ."

1 Corinthians 1:11

Together in Mission provides an opportunity to show our concern for those served by the parishes and schools that need your financial support.

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back or bring it to Mass next weekend. Also, we will conduct our annual Together in Mission in-pew pledge process at all Masses next weekend and the following weekend.

Our 2012 Together in Mission Goal is $65,431.51

Did You Know? Child protection efforts extend to coaches

The Catholic Youth Organization/Department of Catholic Schools coaches' training program implemented in 2005 was created to insure the safety and wellbeing of elementary school children, and coaches, in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Its two-hour training session covering child protection laws and procedures as well as character and safety training is mandatory for archdiocesan paid and volunteer coaches. All of the 4,500 coaches affiliated with 216 Catholic elementary schools are expected to attend the training. In order to attend training, participants must submit verification of Lifescan fingerprinting.

Safeguarding the Children is committed to the well being of our youth. For assistance, call (213) 637-7650.
