

Dear Ministry Leader,

Do you want to see our parish community flourishing and set on fire with the Holy Spirit? If so, then you are being called to participate in an evangelization training called Making Disciples.

Making Disciples is an evangelization seminar offered by the Catherine of Siena Institute. Presented in two parts, this experience will offer you practical tools in evangelization. Mark your calendars!

- Making Disciples Part I, Saturday, October 23rd, 9am-5pm, at Bishop Alemany High School in Mission Hills
- Making Disciples Part 2, will occur on the weekend of January 8-9, 2011, Saturday 9am-5pm, Sunday, 3-7pm, at Bishop Alemany High School in Mission Hills.

Who should attend:

- If you are someone who would like to assist members of your group to grow in their discipleship of Jesus Christ, this seminar is for you!
- If you are someone who would like to understand why a family member, friend, or neighbor isn't going to church anymore, and what you could do to help them get closer to God, this seminar is for you!
- If you are someone who would like help knowing how to share your faith with others in a way that would be simple and inviting, this seminar is for you!

As a community, we are asking each ministry to participate in this opportunity and send as many members as possible. To show you how important we think every parishioner's participation is, your registration fee has already been covered by the parish!

To register send your name, phone number and email address to our parish pastoral council member, Barbara Jones at barbara.b.jones@att.net While emailing Barbara please be sure to let her know your lunch selection. You have your choice between: A Veggie Sandwich, Beef Sandwich, or Turkey Sandwich. Your lunch will come with a bag of chips and drink.
